Where luxury meets soul in the heart of Ayrshire

Tucked away in the rolling hills of South Ayrshire, Ladyburn House is a luxury exclusive-use wedding and celebration venue — where weekend gatherings feel as meaningful as they are beautiful. Set amidst landscaped gardens, ancient trees, and the gentle flow of the Lady Burn, the estate invites couples to slow down, connect deeply, and celebrate their love with intention.

At the heart of Ladyburn is the Garden Pavilion — a light-filled sailcloth marquee made for unforgettable ceremonies, celebratory feasting, and dancing under the stars. The house accommodates 18 guests in 9 all-ensuite bedrooms, elegant lounges, a private spa, yoga studio, and botanical interiors, offering a true home-from-home for you and your favourite people for a wedding weekend to remember.
Owners Nenah and James recently married at Ladyburn, bringing their own love story to life beneath the majestic oak tree and filling the space with joy, flowers, and music. Now, they welcome other couples to do the same — to make the place their own, if only for a weekend.
